

2008 FLACDA Women's Intercollegiate Honor Choir Dr. Janet Galván, Clinician

All FLACDA members are invited and encouraged to send YOUR students to be a part of this unique experience for young collegiate women in our state!

Last year's Intercollegiate Women's Honor Choir was a highlight of the Fall Conference. This year promises to be no exception! Your students need to be a part of this wonderful musical experience. They will make wonderful music, new friendships and memories for a lifetime!

Dr. Janet Galván, Professor of Music at Ithaca College, conducts the Ithaca College Women's Chorale, the Ithaca College Chorus, and is Artistic Director for the Ithaca Children's Choir. Dr. Galván's contribution to choral music was recognized by her New York colleagues in 1995 when she received the New York Outstanding Choral Director Award.

In great demand as a guest conductor, Dr. Galván has conducted national, regional, and all-state honor choral festivals throughout the United States. Galván has also served as master teacher and clinician at national, regional, and state conferences of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) and the Music Educators National Conference (MENC). Dr. Galván was one of the invited authors for GIA's second edition of Teaching Music through Performance in Choir. Dr. Galván's expertise in treble repertoire led to an association with Roger Dean Publishing Company in the origin of two choral series, both specifically for women's/treble voices. She is also the series advisor to Latin Accents, a series with Boosey & Hawkes.
