

Janet Edewaard

Janet Edewaard received her Bachelor of Science Degree from the Florida State University. Having taught all areas of the arts, including drama, Janet has written costume suggestions for some of Hal Leonard's best selling children's musicals.

Janet currently teaches choir and art at Blountstown Middle School and Blountstown High School, where her children were the 5th generation of her family to graduate from Blountstown High.

Janet is an active member of the Florida Vocal Association and the American Choral Directors Association. Janet is the Male Honor Choir Coordinator with the Florida Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association.

In her spare time, Janet is also active in her church and community where she has taught many of the youth of the community to swim.
