

APPLICATION TO PRESENT INTEREST SESSIONS, WORKSHOPS, READING SESSIONS
FLACDA Fall Conference 2018
October 26-27, 2018
Stetson University
Deland, Florida

Conference Theme: Remaining Relevant

Florida ACDA will hold its annual conference as posted in this document and is issuing a call for proposals for presentations of all types: interest sessions, workshops, master classes, reading sessions, etc. Topics pertaining to the stated purposes of ACDA (http://acda.org/page.asp?page=acda_history) and pertaining to choirs of all types are welcomed. The eligibility requirements and application procedures are as follows:

1. Interest Sessions will last approximately 50 minutes.
2. Presenters will be responsible for all travel and expenses related to the presentation, with the exception of some A/V equipment provided by the venue. (Piano, risers, podium, microphones, projector, music stands, and chairs can be provided, but no computers of any kind are provided.)
3. If a demonstration choir is used, the choir must be vetted by the FLACDA leadership, which may include the submission of a recording.
4. The presenter must be a current member of ACDA. The presenter may reside in any state or country.
5. If a reading session is proposed, the presenter agrees to abide by the time-line listed below.

To Apply:

1. The application period begins immediately (May 1, 2018) and will close June 15, 2018.
2. We will do all we can to announce the accepted sessions by July 1, 2018.
3. All applications will be submitted electronically, including this form and any auxiliary materials to support the application. All materials should be e-mailed directly to Dale Choate, the FLACDA current president at:

choated@duvalschools (e-mail, call, or text with further inquiries 904-703-2501 cell)

This Application form should be filled out entirely:
